

HELP BUD MCFARLANE

HAS FORMER NATIONAL SECURITY ADVISOR, ROBERT "BUD" MCFARLANE, BEEN TAKING MONEY FROM THE GENOCIDAL GOVERNMENT OF SUDAN? DOES HE KNOW THAT IN DOING SO HE WOULD BE BREAKING INTERNATIONAL LAW, SANCTIONS, AND GOING AGAINST OUR COUNTRY'S NATIONAL SECURITY PRIORITIES?

"The government of Sudan, eager to curry favor with a U.S. government that accused it of genocide, sought help last fall from an unlikely source: a former Reagan administration official known for his role in the Iran-contra scandal."

"The approach by Sudanese officials led to a $1.3 million contract for former national security adviser Robert "Bud" McFarlane, who went on to meet with two of the Obama administration's top policymakers on Sudan and its strife-torn Darfur region, according to documents and interviews."¹

¹ "A Cold War Man, a Hot War and a Legal Gray Area, Reagan Aide's Dealings Raise Questions on Americans' Involvement With Sudan," Dan Eggen, Washington Post 9/30/2009